26 The United States of America respectfully applies for an extension of time to and including
January 8, 2016, for the United States to file a Civil Complaint For Forfeiture In Rem of the $24,929.91 in United States Currency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(3)(A) and LR 6. The Civil Complaint For Forfeiture In Rem of the $24,929.91 in United States Currency is due July 8, 2015.

27 The grounds for this application are (1) the government is pursuing criminal prosecution against
28 James Jariv, and (2) counsel for James Jariv agreed to the extension of time. James Jariv has pled guilty

1 in his criminal case. His sentencing is currently scheduled for August 5, 2015. Once James Jariv is
2 sentenced in his criminal case, the United States will dismiss this civil case.

3 This Sealed Ex Parte Application is made and is based on this Application and the attached
4 Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

5 DATED this 26th day of June, 2015.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. STATEMENT OF FACTS

On or about January 14, 2014, $24,929.91 in United States Currency was seized from Citibank, account number 153003355 in the name of The Evergreen Asset Irrevocable Trust, Myungnam Jung, ATF, located at 2215 North Rampart Boulevard, Las Vegas, Nevada 89128 with a judicially approved and issued civil seizure warrant.

The $24,929.91 in United States Currency was subject to administrative summary forfeiture proceedings; however, James Jariv filed an administrative claim on or about April 9, 2014.

Nathan Stolar and James Jariv have pled guilty to the Indictment. Nathan Stolar was sentenced on April 9, 2015. James Jariv is scheduled for sentencing on August 5, 2015. Once James Jariv is sentenced in his criminal case, the United States will dismiss this civil case.

II. ARGUMENT

This Court should grant this application for an extension of time to file a Civil Complaint For Forfeiture In Rem of the $24,929.91 in United States Currency because counsel for James Jariv has agreed. LR 6-1; 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(3)(A).

[T]he Government shall file a complaint for forfeiture in the manner set forth in the Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims . . . , a court in the district in which a complaint will be filed may extend the period for filing a complaint for good cause shown or upon agreement of the parties.”

18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(3)(A).

The filing of a Civil Complaint For Forfeiture In Rem, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 983, starts a civil forfeiture in rem action that is new and is separate from the criminal prosecution. A district court has the authority under 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(3)(A) to extend the period of time to file a Civil Complaint For Forfeiture In Rem based on the agreement of the parties. Doing otherwise could cause interference with the criminal prosecution.

On June 25, 2015, James Jariv's counsel, Tim Johnson, agreed to the extension of time and authorized counsel for the United States to file this unopposed motion with this Court. Because the

1 parties have agreed that the United States should be allowed an extension of time to file its In Rem
2 Complaint, the government respectfully asks this Court to grant its motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §
3 983(a)(3)(A).

4 This Application is not submitted solely for the purpose of delay or for any other improper
5 purpose.

6 II. CONCLUSION

7 This Court should grant an extension of time to and including January 8, 2016, for the United
8 States to file a Civil Complaint For Forfeiture In Rem of the $24,929.91 in United States Currency under 9 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(3)(A) because both parties agreed to the extension.

10 DATED this 26th day of June, 2015.

11 Respectfully submitted,

12 DANIEL G. BOGDEN
